(IQAC)

Academic Year 2025-2026

Introduction: The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), established on 6 November 2024, of Aadya Aviation College aims to establish a quality culture within the institution. Our focus is to create a sustainable system to enhance academic and administrative performance.

Vision To create a centre of excellence by fostering continuous improvement in teaching, learning, and governance.

Mission

1. Promote innovative teaching-learning practices.
2. Encourage participation of all stakeholders in quality enhancement.
3. Ensure accountability and transparency in institutional processes.

Objectives

- Develop a quality framework for academic and administrative activities.
- Encourage faculty development through training and workshops.
- Strengthen feedback mechanisms for students and other stakeholders.
- Monitor and evaluate institutional performance periodically.

Composition of IQAC

1. Chairman: Prof. Abhishek Kumar, Principal
2. Coordinator: Ms. Rajeshwari K, Associate Professor (HOD)
3. Members:
 - Mr. Mohan Kumar, Management
 - Ms. Uma devi, Management
 - Mr. Darwin Sebastian, Assistant Professor

Functions

1. Develop and implement quality benchmarks for academic and administrative activities.
2. Facilitate learner-centric teaching and promote the use of modern tools and technologies.
3. Organize workshops and seminars on quality enhancement.
4. Collect and analyse feedback from students, parents, and other stakeholders.

Strategies

- Adopt effective teaching methodologies to improve learning outcomes.
- Strengthen mentoring and counseling for students.
- Encourage research and publication among faculty and students.
- Collaborate with other institutions and industries for academic exchange.
- Review policies to align with evolving educational trends.

Implementation Plan

Students Grievance Redressal Cell Plan
AY-2025-26

Date: 12-11-2025

To ensure transparency, inclusivity, and effective communication within the college, the Students' Grievance Redressal Cell (SGRC) is pleased to announce the implementation of the following activities for the academic year 2024-25:

1. Orientation Sessions

As part of the induction program for new students, orientation sessions will be held to educate them about the grievance redressal process. These sessions will provide detailed insights into:

- The purpose and functioning of the SGRC.
- Procedures for lodging complaints or concerns.
- Timelines and confidentiality measures.

2. Installation of Suggestion Boxes

To facilitate anonymous feedback and grievance submissions, suggestion boxes will be installed in the institutions:

Students are encouraged to utilize these boxes to share feedback, suggestions, or concerns. Submissions will be reviewed weekly by the SGRC.

3. Open House Sessions

Interactive sessions will be organized to allow students to discuss their concerns directly with SGRC members. These sessions aim to promote open communication and foster trust among the student community.

4. Student Code of Conduct Sessions

Special sessions will be organized to explain the Student Code of Conduct and related disciplinary measures. These sessions will focus on:

- Rights and responsibilities of students.
- Behavioral expectations within the campus.
- Consequences of violations and the grievance appeal process.

5. Introduction of New Member

Mr. Darwin S was introduced as a member of the Student Redressal Committees.
